Align Health Collective Physiotherapy in Preston, VIC is proud to announce their 7th year in providing quality care and treatment to their patients. The clinic has been at the forefront of providing the best possible physiotherapy services to the local community, with a team of highly skilled and experienced physiotherapists who are dedicated to providing the best possible care to their patients.

“At Align Health Collective, we are proud to be celebrating our 7th year of providing quality physiotherapy services to the community of Preston,” said Chalerm Tuantab, Senior Podiatrist and Managing Director at Align Health Collective. “We have always been committed to providing the best possible care to our patients and we are proud to have established a reputation for excellence in the community.”

The clinic’s approach to patient-centred care and outcomes has been key to their success. They believe that everyone deserves access to the best possible care, and that the patient’s well-being should always be the primary focus. They work closely with each of their patients to develop individualised treatment plans and to monitor their progress, ensuring that they receive the care and support they need to achieve their goals.

At Align Health Collective - Physio Preston, they provide a range of services, including dry needling, clinical Pilates, posture improvement, Injury Prevention, Acute Injury Management, Rehabilitation, and Performance Optimisation. Their team of award-winning clinicians has over a combined 40+ years of experience, making them the experts one can trust for all their sports physiotherapy needs.

Education and advice are also an integral part of the Align Health Collective philosophy. They believe in empowering their patients to take control of their health and wellness, and that starts with providing them with the knowledge and skills they need to manage their conditions effectively. They provide their patients with a comprehensive understanding of their condition and the steps they need to take to recover quickly and effectively.

?Looking ahead, we are excited about the future of Align Health Collective,? said Tuantab. ?We are committed to continuing to provide the best possible care to our patients and to staying at the forefront of the physiotherapy field. We are always exploring new techniques and treatments, and we are dedicated to providing our patients with the latest and most effective care available.?
