Its inventory also includes sound systems, lighting, inflatables, concessions, interactive games, dunk tanks, heating and cooling equipment, generators, stages, outdoor movie screens, and staging, which can enhance the overall experience for attendees.

"Corporate events are an essential part of building and maintaining relationships with clients and employees," said Andrea Alvarez, owner of Fresh Air Party Rental. "We understand the importance of creating a professional and memorable atmosphere that reflects the company's brand and message. That's why we have worked hard to curate an inventory that meets the needs of corporate clients and their events."

One of the advantages of working with Fresh Air Party Rental is the company's flexibility in accommodating the specific needs of each corporate event. Whether it's a small business luncheon or a large conference, the company's team of experts can provide the right rental items to create the ideal atmosphere. The staff can also assist with the setup and breakdown of the equipment, which saves time and hassle for the event planners.

In addition to providing rental items, Fresh Air Party Rental offers design and planning services. This ensures that the event is not only functional but also aesthetically pleasing.

"Many of our corporate clients appreciate our design and planning services," said Alvarez. "We understand that the event's success is not only about providing the right rental items but also about creating a cohesive and visually appealing experience. Our team is here to help with every aspect of the event planning process on behalf of our customers."

Fresh Air Party Rental has worked with numerous companies in the Lilburn, GA area to create successful corporate events. One satisfied client, Shenoa B., had this to say about her experience, "Great service and experience. Andrea was so helpful and generous to fit me in the schedule for a tent delivery and set up 1 day before I needed it! They were also almost half the price of the other quotes I was getting from other companies. The delivery men came and set up on time and quickly and picked up/took down the same! Would highly recommend."

A positive review left by Travis W. remarks on the company's friendly staff. Travis said, "We used Fresh Air for our large church carnival and they were great. They showed up right on time and staked down the 3 inflatables we ordered extra good because it was a fairly windy day. The units were clean and we had no problems all day. Employees were very friendly and easy to work with. We will certainly continue using them for our party needs."
