March 09, 2023 -
The A-Team - Calgary is proud to announce that they have sold a nice house in just seven days for over the list price with multiple offers despite the tough Calgary real estate market. Calgary is a city in Canada that has been showing signs of rapid economic growth compared to other Canadian cities. This growth has caused a rise in demand for homes in Calgary, which has made buying a house in Calgary a very difficult task. This is where a Calgary real estate agent is beneficial, whether selling a home or searching for a new one. More about this can be gleaned from their website at https://sites.google.com/view/ateamcalgary/.

To their client, Breanna Albrecht, who is half of the husband-and-wife real estate team, says, ?Huge congratulations on selling your home for an amazing price! Thank you for everything you did to prepare for this sale. And most importantly, thank you so much for hiring me. It was a pleasure working with you and I hope our paths cross again soon. Take care.?

The A-Team - Calgary has developed a reputation of being one of the most reliable when it comes to offering help to those who want to buy or sell a home in Calgary and surrounding areas. The major reason for this is the team?s vast knowledge about real estate in their area. And as a result of the team?s reputation of fast real estate transactions, the team has been asked to help in selling property in some of the prime real estate areas in Calgary.

The quality of the service they provide is evidenced by the many positive reviews they have been receiving. In fact, they have an overall rating of 5.0 out of 5 stars on Google. In a recent review, Tim B. gave them a five star rating and said, ?We were moving from out of province as first time home buyers and simply happened upon the A-team and spoke with Tom on the phone to discuss what we had in mind. This turned out to be one of the best decisions we've made thus far. They've not only met, but exceeded our expectations at every turn. From showing us around Calgary to viewing homes then inevitably continuing to do so virtually to scheduling and organizing all of the required services virtually then negotiating on our behalf, Tom has been absolutely phenomenal, and we certainly didn't make it easy on him. Without a doubt we would recommend the A-Team to anyone we know 100%.? In another five star review, Jake H. said, ?Relocating from a different province with a tight time frame to purchase a home was very stressful. But working with Tom and Breanna they quickly narrowed down our desired neighborhood and their leveraged their expertise in the real estate market to make our purchase seamless. Thank you.?
