Irvine, California - December 15, 2023 -
Irvine, CA based GetDandy would like to share news of their success working with Moss Bros. As an agency that specializes in reputation management and other digital tools, GetDandy helped Moss Bros to get rid of over 500 bad reviews, acquire dozens of new positive reviews and consolidate all their reviews on a single, user-friendly dashboard.

GetDandy understands the importance of reviews in this day and age ? and how a few bad reviews can make a world of difference in how well a business does. As such, their work with Moss Bros, a family owned-and-operated business located in Southern California that has been in the business for over 100 years, is one of the success stories that they are most proud of. GetDandy has even gone so far as to publish a case study where they illustrate how their review and reputation management services helped Moss Bros greatly improve their online reputation. The case study can be found here: https://getdandy.com/case-study-auto-dealership/.

?Moss Bros. Auto Group (MB) recognized the value of managing and monitoring their online reputation and sought to increase the number of customer reviews to drive business growth,? says the case study of the Moss Bros project. ?Additionally, they sought to remove defamatory reviews that did not accurately reflect the exceptional customer experience for which MB is known. Prior to partnering with GetDandy, the management of online reviews was a manual and time-consuming task, requiring constant monitoring of multiple review sites to ensure accuracy and relevance.?

GetDandy?s reputation management solutions served as a comprehensive solution for Moss Bros, automating the process of managing and monitoring their online reputation and overseeing the process of challenging negative reviews from sites like Google, Facebook and Yelp. GetDandy and Moss Bros, by forming a strategic partnership, managed to come up with an effective plan of action that led to a great boost in the company?s online reputation. The impact of removing 250+ negative reviews and encouraging the creation of new positive reviews was almost immediately apparent as Moss Bros? average rating went from 3.5 to 4.5, and they have seen a marked increase in the number of schedule requests as well. Moss Bros is also expecting a 10% increase in annual revenue.

Moss Bros is not the only brand to have benefitted from GetDandy?s reputation management services. A number of others have made use of GetDandy?s services to help them improve their online reputation and thus increase the chances of potential customers choosing to do business with them. GetDandy uses tried-and-tested methods of online reputation to help their clients achieve noticeable results fast. The best way to protect a business? reputation is by monitoring and managing its reputation closely ? and making sure only the honest, positive truth about the business is allowed to stand.

It was definitely a value-added service."
