Atlanta Tree Service Experts Honored for Commitment to Safety and Employee Training

February 28, 2023

Atlanta, Georgia - February 28, 2023 -
Atlanta, GA ? Atlanta Tree Service Experts, a tree care and removal company based in Atlanta, has been recognized by the National Arborist Association (NAA) for their commitment to safety and employee training. The award was presented at the NAA's annual conference and awards ceremony, held this year virtually due to the ongoing pandemic.

Atlanta Tree Service Experts was founded in 2000 and has since earned a reputation for being one of the Atlanta area's leading tree care and removal companies. Its dedicated tree-care workers and certified arborists are highly trained, with each employee receiving ongoing safety training.

The company is dedicated to providing customers with an efficient and safe experience. It has implemented safety protocols such as helmets, goggles, gloves, hard hats, earplugs, face masks, steel-toe boots, and other protective clothing for its employees. The NAA has recognized this commitment to providing a safe work environment through its annual award ceremony.

During this year's virtual event, Atlanta Tree Service Experts was awarded the Safety Excellence Award for their continued dedication to safety and training. This marks the first time Atlanta Tree Service Experts has received such an honor from the NAA. The award recognizes not only Atlanta Tree Service Experts' commitment to employee safety but also its commitment to customer service excellence. By routinely updating their training programs and implementing new safety measures whenever necessary, they are committed to ensuring every job is done safely and correctly with minimal risk of injury or property damage.

"At Atlanta Tree Service Experts, we take great pride in our commitment to safety and employee training. It is an honor to be recognized by the NAA for our dedication to the highest standards in tree care," said Elliot Craven, CEO of Atlanta Tree Service Experts. "Our team works hard daily to ensure that our customers receive the best service possible and that our employees do their work in a safe environment."

The NAA's annual award recognizes companies demonstrating exemplary commitment to safety and training initiatives. Award recipients must comply with all relevant local and national regulations, employ proper safety protocols, and promote ongoing employee training.

"We are delighted to recognize Atlanta Tree Service Experts for their dedication to safety and training," said James Brown, President of the National Arborist Association. "It is so important for tree care businesses to prioritize safety in the workplace and provide their employees with the resources they need to succeed. Atlanta Tree Service Experts sets a great example for tree care companies nationwide."

Atlanta Tree Service Experts provides many services, including tree pruning, shaping, topping, bracing, cabling, and removal. The company also offers stump grinding, land clearing, fertilization, and pest control services. All of their work comes with a 100% satisfaction guarantee, making them one of Atlanta's most trusted tree service companies.

"We strive to provide exceptional customer service while keeping our crew safe on the job site," said Craven. "Receiving this award reinforces our belief that safety should always come first and that providing quality training for our employees is essential for delivering excellent service."
