TIGARD, OR - March 06, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Portland, Oregon: Water damage can occur anytime - from storms and floods to broken pipes and malfunctioning appliances. When it happens, it is crucial to know who to turn to that will get the job done right. Cougar Restoration is the go-to water damage restoration expert in and around Portland, providing superior services with great attention to detail and professionalism.

It's estimated that an alarming 14,000 people in the US deal with a water damage case at home or work every day. Even more startling is that 98% of all basements across America will experience some form of water damage at some point. Having a reliable team to tackle the issue is of utmost importance, and Cougar Restoration is a trusted name for Portland locals.

The havoc caused by water damage can range from mild to severe, requiring specific solutions from professionals. The Cougar Restoration experts assess the damage's extent and create a tailored plan of action to address the problem. As part of their water damage restoration services, they identify and repair the source of the problem; remove any standing water, debris, or damaged items from the premises; dehumidify the area; clean and sanitize affected surfaces; and finally, restore any affected areas.

Furthermore, Cougar Restoration's network of specialized technicians can often rescue precious photographs, taxidermy pieces, antique rugs, and other family heirlooms that would otherwise be destroyed by water damage. The company understands the importance of salvaging family memories and items, which is why they have invested in specialized training and equipment so that clients can avoid further losses due to water damage.

Acting fast when water damage strikes is critical, and Cougar Restoration offers 24/7 emergency services to be there for its clients when they need it most. The company also works with all the major insurance carriers, so those affected by water damage can count on the assurance that their restoration and rebuild costs will be covered. Documentation after the job is done is extensive and includes detailed photographs, diagrams, and other paperwork to provide clients with a comprehensive report of the restoration process. Noting this, Cougar Restoration stands out in the industry for guaranteeing full transparency and accountability.
