For sellers, AB Realty's team of professional sales agents is highly qualified and motivated to get clients the best price for their home. An experienced agent can draw on what they know about the market, other homes in the area, and the specific property to set a price that's not too high or low. The agent will give an honest assessment of the property while getting the highest price possible. If the price is too high, it will turn off buyers before they even see it. If it's too low, buyers will wonder what's wrong. AB Realty's agents find the sweet spot and list the property at the perfect price.
