Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Valdosta, a law firm based in Valdosta, GA, wants to point out that they are always ready to provide the services of auto accident lawyers in Kennesaw and surrounding areas. Kennesaw is a suburban city located northwest of Atlanta in Cobb County and is included in the Atlanta metropolitan area. The auto accident lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent will carefully evaluate each specific case at different angles, including the nature of the injuries, the impact of the accident on the life of the injured victim, and the cost of past and future medical treatments.

Tim Derrickson, a spokesperson for Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., says, ?Accidents can potentially occur at any time in Kennesaw Georgia. When people are involved in car accidents, and if they are seriously injured, their life can be affected in many different ways. The injuries can make it impossible for them to do the same activities or even go to work as they once did. If you know someone that has been injured in this way, or if it is someone close to you such as a loved one, you may also believe that the negligence, recklessness, and carelessness of the other driver is why this occurred which you should pursue compensation for.?

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. offers services in the Kennesaw area and they ensure clients that they always make it their priority to make sure that their client will get the compensation they deserve from the personal injury claim. The firm?s lawyers have expertise in working with any car insurance company for the purpose of getting a fair settlement for the client. In the event that a settlement cannot be obtained from the insurance firm, they go to trial for the client. They have several years of experience in the area of torts and injuries, which is why they have a law practice that works directly with private injured victims and small businesses.

The goal of the auto accident lawyer is to ensure that the client will get compensated for the maximum possible amount due to their car accident and injury. This will include any pedestrian that was injured, such as during a hit-and-run accident. Tim Derrickson says, ?In addition, if you are injured, and it?s not your fault, the accountability will be on the part of the negligent party. Our attorneys will be able to advocate for you and protect your rights.?

Some of the most common injuries suffered by auto accident victims include: broken bones, spinal cord injuries, PTSD, amputation, broken ribs, torn ligaments, damaged pelvis, collapsed lung, internal organ injury, lacerations, abrasions, internal bleeding, traumatic brain injuries, herniated discs, damaged pelvis, injuries to extremities, spinal cord injuries, and head injuries and chest injuries.

There are several expenses to consider when a victim is claiming compensation. These include: hospitalization costs, the cost of future treatments for sustained injuries, overall damage to your vehicle, pain-and-suffering, lost wages, loss of transportation, the repair of your vehicle due to the accident, and the punitive damages resulting from the negligence of the other driver.

Established in 1989, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has a team of personal injury lawyers who can ensure clients they have the proper knowledge and experience to help clients in pursuing their personal injury claims. All of them came from top colleges and universities in the country and they come from a wide variety of racial and socio-economic backgrounds. They are also multilingual and have won various awards. They are also authors for several law school journals and the Georgia State Bar Journal. They are licensed to practice in Georgia, Texas, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, South Carolina, West Virginia, and Florida. They offer a free case evaluation for any individual who believes they have a reasonable personal injury claim.
