March 21, 2023 -
Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Columbus is pleased to announce that their auto accident lawyers can help protect the rights of the accident victim following a car wreck in Dalton, GA, and neighboring areas. Dalton is a city that serves as the county seat of Whitfield County, GA, and is also a principal city in the Dalton Metropolitan Statistical Area. The firm?s car accident lawyers will make sure that their client?s personal injury claim will be taken seriously and all of the accident victim?s legal rights are safeguarded.

Tim Derrickson, a spokesperson for Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., says, ?The next step after visiting the doctor if you were harmed in a Dalton vehicle accident is to contact a lawyer. Even the smallest automobile accidents can inflict injuries that last for months or years, and more. Major car accidents can result in injuries that cost tens of thousands of dollars to cure medically. Without legal support, you can?t count on the insurance company to make a reasonable offer. Our objective is to provide you with the whole amount you require?the sum total after all therapies, doctor visits, and lost work time has been paid for.?

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. will send a private investigator to find out what occurred and gather the evidence required for the case. After a car wreck, it is vital to document the accident, collect evidence, have the injuries treated as soon as possible, and get legal counsel to protect the victim?s rights.

Right after the accident, it is advisable to gather evidence. It is important to call the police, report the incident, and explain to the responding officers what had occurred. It is also a good idea to take photos of the car damage, one?s injuries, and the crash site. It is important to make sure that all information has been gathered before putting the blame on someone or apologizing to the other driver. Lastly, it is vital to talk with various witnesses and get their names and contact information.

As soon as possible, it is also essential to have the injuries examined and treated by a doctor. This should be done even if the discomfort or pain is mild because some car accident injuries may take weeks to fully become evident. The medical bills, doctor?s notes, and other documentation can be used in the case later on. Most of all, it is vital to monitor all expenses that are related to the auto accident and place all of the notes and documents in one location. These should include the claim number, name of the insurance adjuster, all medical documents and bills, estimates for repairing the car damage, and names and contact information of all relevant parties.

The auto accident lawyer can make sure that the accident victim is given a fair settlement when dealing with the insurance company. The attorney from Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. will always be on the side of the accident victim during the entire process, including when taking the other driver to court in the event that the insurance firm or the other driver contests the claim.

Started in 1989, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. provides the services of personal injury lawyers to help personal injury victims in getting a fair settlement. All of the firm?s attorneys came from premier colleges and universities in the United States, are multilingual, and have a wide range of racial and socio-economic backgrounds and achieved several awards. They are also written for various school journals and the Georgia State Bar Journal. They are licensed to practice in Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, and West Virginia. They can provide a free case evaluation for anyone who believes they have a personal injury claim.

Those who are in need of an auto accident attorney for Dalton and nearby areas can visit the Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. website or contact them through the phone or via email. They can be contacted 24 hours a day, at any day of the week.
