March 28, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Painter Perth has made a reputation for itself in its area of Western Australia by offering quality painting services combined with very good customer service. Part of the company's good service includes its crews paying attention to even the smallest details of a project. It's a trait that has been mentioned in several glowing reviews that customers have left on the services that this painter in Perth offers.

Daniel King had this to say about how Painter Perth goes about doing its business and the attention to detail that the company members display as he proclaimed, "They are the most professional & knowledgeable painters in the trade. This contractor exhibits extremely high standards that focus on longevity & attention to detail. Simply the best there is. Nothing can match Perth Painters when it comes to skills and experience."

Isabella also echoed the sentiments in the above review when it comes to the attention to detail that the crews at Painter Perth display as she stated, "Karlos and his team from Painter Perth, were very attentive and professional and really took the time to make sure our project turned out better than we could have expected. From estimate to completion, everything was done impeccably. Their attention to detail was exceptional. For Anyone that is looking for a serious Perth-based painting company for their next painting project, we strongly recommend Painter Perth.?

Joe?s 5-star review of this Perth painter noticed similar company traits as he wrote, ?I have used Painter Perth for 3 projects so far and never been disappointed. I could not recommend Karlos highly enough! The quality of the work is always excellent, and his team approaches its work in the same manner as any skilled craftsperson would. I find them to be highly professional, honest, and very hard-working. The company?s attention to detail is also unsurpassed. In the future, I will not go anywhere else when I need painting in Perth done.?

A partner in the company, Karlos Sarris, stated, ?While we don?t necessarily have a goal to get 5-star reviews on all of the painting work that we do, we do realize those will come with the quality and hard work that we put into every painting project that we take on. Our crews fully understand that paying attention to even the smallest details on a painting project is a big part of this.?

Sarris went on to say that they are a fully registered, licensed, and insured company that brings over 20 years of experience with them to any painting project that a customer asks them to do. This includes all types of interior and exterior residential painting tasks. He added, ?Our company prides itself on using the highest-quality paint products and state-of-the-art painting equipment to complement the wealth of experience and professionalism that our painting techs display during each of our painting jobs.?

The company partner also talked about the various types of painting projects that his team of highly trained and experienced painters often perform. A list that starts with a variety of interior painting services. Painting jobs that include everything from brightening up interior walls to bringing back-to-life cabinets and other woodwork in a home or commercial setting. He even stated that to their crews' painting is more of an art form to them than it is a job.

Not to be overlooked is Painter Perth?s exterior painting services. The company partner says this is an especially satisfying job for them because they can take a drab-looking home or building and turn it into one that stands out from those around it. Office Painting, Industrial Painting, and Roof Painting are also specialty painting services that this company excels at.

According to Sarris, they are always willing to take time to meet with their Western Australia residential and commercial customers to discuss any type of painting project that they need to be done. He also mentioned that they offer no-charge quotes, and a customer is never under any obligation to accept them.
