April 04, 2023

April 04, 2023 -
Queensland Conveyancing firm LEAD Conveyancing has announced that it has upgraded its website to better serve its clients all over Australia.

With new details related to its services in Queensland, Victoria, and New South Wales, the company has updated the information on its website to give Australian property owners the latest data on fees, the legal requirements surrounding property transactions, and how the conveyancing process works. Readers are urged to visit the website and read the updated content or to get started with the firm?s free conveyancing fees calculator that can provide them with an estimate in under 30 seconds.

Senior Lawyer at LEAD Conveyancing Brisbane, Kristy Fletcher talks about the benefits of the recent update to clients. ?Buying and selling property is intimidating,? Kristy says. ?Not only is there a large sum of money involved but the laws surrounding such transactions also often keep on changing. Our clients want to know that their hard-earned money or assets are going to be transferred securely and seamlessly without any last-minute surprises or hassles. For everyone interested in buying and selling property across Australia, the new website has all the information you need to gain a thorough understanding of the key steps involved. The content also seeks to assure our clients that, when you pick our firm to facilitate your property transfer, you are getting the best in the business who can solve any challenge that might pop up along the way.?

Headquartered in Melbourne, LEAD Conveyancing has been helping Australian property owners eliminate the stress related to property transactions since 2020. The firm prides itself on creating bulletproof contracts and offering clients constant communication for their peace of mind. LEAD Conveyancing?s customer service has been recognized for three years straight, since 2021, by WordOfMouth.com where it has a near-perfect rating of 4.9 out of 5.0 from over 125 reviews.

Customers get to benefit from a fully digital conveyancing process that doesn?t require in-person meetings. With a focus on a paper-free experience with very little physical mail, LEAD Conveyancing can fulfil all the requirements of the property transfer via online video conferencing, from a phone, tablet, or computer, and over email. Documents can be signed on the go using e-signing technology; any help clients need is just one phone call away.

?If you have a busy schedule,? Kristy continues, ?just hop on a call with us wherever you may be, and we will help you through the conveyancing process. We have offices at several locations in Australia but you don?t have to visit us. As a digital-first operation that values efficiency, we are making it extremely easy for you to manage your property transactions.?

LEAD Conveyancing can help customers buy an existing or off-the-plan residential property, including reviewing the contract of the proposed purchase, or sell an existing residential property, including drafting the contract, and Section 32, also known as a Vendor?s Statement. The company also facilitates property transfers between related parties and provides standalone contract review and drafting services. The quote provided by its experienced legal team includes full costs including search certificates, disbursements, council fees, body corporate fees, and other associated costs with conveyancing.

The Certified Member of PEXA (Property Exchange Australia) has received praise from clients for its responsive customer service and affordable pricing. One review on WordOfMouth.com says, ?Absolutely brilliant service. We have used LEAD twice and will be back again. Thank you, Alice. You have been wonderful and professional every time!?

Another 5-star review from a trusted user says, ?LEAD's service made the sale of our property so smooth and efficient. It could not have gone any better and their price was very reasonable. Erica, our paralegal, was great. She made everything so easy to follow and we are forever grateful to her and our Solicitor, Kristy, for making it all so easy. Thank you LEAD.?
