March 27, 2023

GULFPORT, MS - March 27, 2023 -
The Healy & Jordan Law Firm is helping auto accident victims in Mississippi?s Gulf Coast get compensated for their injuries and hold the party at fault accountable.

According to the Mississippi Highway Safety Group, every year, over 10,000 injuries occur on the state?s roads due to careless, distracted, or intoxicated drivers. While most vehicular accident victims are lucky to walk away unscathed with fender benders that just warrant a property damage claim, in some unfortunate cases, victims can suffer injuries that sap their quality of life for years to come.

George W. Healy IV, the co-founder of Healy & Jordan, PLLC, talks about the severity of auto accident injuries by saying, ?When you are in a 4000-pound vehicle moving at 30 to 40 miles per hour, there is no saying how the next turn or intersection might irrevocably change your life. Some of the life-altering injuries that our clients have faced include ligament damage, fractured pelvis, broken bones, collapsed lungs, chest, head, spinal cord, and organ injuries, herniated discs, and more. In such cases, you can end up with physical trauma that changes you forever.?

After the accident, victims are often faced with mounting medical bills which make recovery mentally taxing. Not only do they have to reckon with the harm they were caused but they can also face issues such as bankruptcy and lost wages ? all due to the fault of someone who should have known or acted better. Moreover, the pain is compounded when victims realize that the deck is stacked against them by insurance companies, and their highly paid lawyers, who go to great lengths to defend their clients and reduce their liability.

?Insurance companies only care about their bottom line,? George W. Healy IV says, ?Regardless of your suffering, they only care about reducing the payout for themselves. Their team of lawyers will downplay your injuries and offer you a paltry sum that will not be enough to cover the medical bills that you will likely face for several more years.?

The team at the law firm of Healy & Jordan, PLLC, has over 35 years of experience, representing Mississippi accident victims and helping them get what they are rightfully owed. The law firm?s experienced auto accident attorneys help clients maximize the settlement offered and even fight the case in court if it goes to trial. In over four decades, co-founder George W. Healy IV has recorded hundreds of successful personal injury case victories and recovered approximately $50 million for his clients. His achievements include being recognized in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers, being awarded the Justice James L. Dennis Award by the Louisiana State Bar Association, and receiving Martindale-Hubbell's AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating.

Healy & Jordan, PLLC, has made a name for itself by fighting hard to get its clients on the Gulf Coast the full financial compensation they deserve.
