New York City Interior Designer Wins Award For Leading Full Service Interior Design Studio

March 17, 2023

March 17, 2023 -
New York City, New York - Studio DLG, a leading full-service interior design studio specializing in creative residential projects, is proud to announce that its founder and principal interior designer, David Guth, has won the prestigious Design and Build award from Build Review. The award recognizes Studio DLG as the Leading Full-Service Interior Design Studio Specializing in Creative Residential Projects, 2022 - NYC.

For more than a decade, David Guth has been revolutionizing homes in New York City through his impressive design solutions and dedicated attention to detail. Crafting beautiful and functional spaces that accurately reflect each client's personal style and lifestyle is what sets him apart from others as one of the city's most esteemed interior designers. With unmatched customer service on top of it all, it comes as no surprise why he continues to be highly sought-after by many.

David is honored to have received this recognition from Build Review and says, "At Studio DLG, we strive to create unique and personalized spaces that exceed our clients' expectations." NYC's Studio DLG is a one-stop shop for all interior design needs, including space planning, color consulting, furniture selection and lighting design. Their experienced team has successfully completed projects ranging from modern apartments to traditional Brooklyn townhouses - no project too big or small.

Studio DLG has been recognized as one of the top global design and build firms, with their recent win in the Leading Full-Service Interior Design Studio Specializing in Creative Residential Projects, 2022 - New York City category at Build Review's prestigious Design and Build award. This coveted accolade is a reflection of the studio's dedication to excellence and creativity in interior design.
