March 21, 2023 -
Edmond, OK ? Edmond Tree Experts, a locally owned and operated tree care company in Edmond, Oklahoma, is proud to announce the launch of their new restoration program for historical urban trees. The program will help preserve, restore, and protect trees in the area over 50 years old with cultural or environmental significance.

"The preservation of historical trees is critical to maintaining the unique character of our city and protecting our local environment," said Ardian Idrizi, CEO of Edmond Tree Experts. "We want to ensure these special trees are taken care of so they can continue to live and thrive in the community."

Edmond Tree Experts is partnering with local organizations such as the Edmond Parks & Recreation Department and Friends of Trees Oklahoma to identify and protect significant trees in the area. Through the restoration program, the company will assess the health of each tree and create an individualized plan for its long-term maintenance and care. More information on how Edmond Tree Experts approaches regular tree care can be gleaned here: https://www.treeservicesoklahomacity.net/edmond/.

The company will provide specialized services such as trimming, pruning, root management, and fertilization to promote healthy growth and improve the tree's overall appearance. In addition, Edmond Tree Experts will use the latest technology and equipment to remove any deadwood or hazardous limbs from the tree safely.

"We understand how important it is to maintain these historic trees for future generations to enjoy," said Idrizi. "We aim to ensure they remain vibrant and healthy for many years."

Edmond Tree Experts also plans to participate in community education efforts related to preserving historical trees in the area. The company will host free seminars and workshops on topics such as proper planting techniques and tree care best practices.

"We want to ensure people have access to the information they need to care for these trees properly," said Idrizi. "These seminars will provide valuable insight into properly caring for these age-old symbols of strength and endurance."

Edmond Tree Experts has provided professional tree care services in Edmond since 1998. The company specializes in various services, including tree trimming, pruning, removal, stump grinding, fertilization, pest control, and more.
