Amundson Law Office Attorney Can Serve as Burnsville Family Law Attorney

March 29, 2023

EAGAN, MN - March 29, 2023 -
Amundson Law Office, a law firm in Eagan, MN, is proud to announce that Attorney Lisa Amundson, who was recently recognized as a top St Paul child support lawyer, can serve the entire Twin Cities metropolitan area, including suburbs like Burnsville where she is also considered a leading family law attorney. Burnsville is a city in Dakota County and is 15 miles south of downtown Minneapolis.

Lisa Amundson says, ?The very prospect of divorce creates an array of daunting questions and emotions. Questions about finances, the children's future and how to divide assets accumulated over years of marriage can be intimidating and make it difficult to take the first steps. Even in an emotionally charged situation, it is crucial to have a lawyer who focuses on securing your future and takes a sound approach to legal decision-making. At Amundson Law Office LLC, we understand that going through a divorce is not easy. That is why we strive to advocate for your best interests in the legal proceedings so you can focus on establishing your new life.?

Amundson Law Office provides a free consultation for clients who want to get a divorce. Family laws in Minnesota provide the guidelines for issues from divorce and marital property rights. Lisa Amundson is an effective and experienced divorce attorney in the Twin Cities and in Dakota County, including Burnsville. As a Burnsville family law attorney, she can help the client understand how the law applies to their specific situation and then work with them in creating a plan that will effectively address the various concerns and needs of the client and the children. From the initial consultation to the finalization of the divorce, Lisa Amundson will be there to guide the client at every step of the process.

A divorce case is usually an emotionally charged situation, but it is essential to have a lawyer who is focused on securing the future of the client and takes a prudent strategy with regards to legal decision making. At Amundson Law Office LLC, they fully understand that going through the divorce process is difficult. That is why they will serve as the rational foundation for the client to promote the best interests of the client.

In addition to being a divorce lawyer, Lisa Amundson can also offer her assistance as a domestic violence attorney in Burnsville. She wants to point out that divorce and family law issues are typically both complicated and emotionally charged and complex, but in those situations where there is domestic violence, the situation can even be worse. Women who are in this type of situation may feel that asking for help from a lawyer can be embarrassing, intimidating, and even frightening because of the potential for experiencing even more abuse both for themselves and their children.

Amundson Law Office will also handle child custody, parenting time, and visitation rights for residents of Burnsville, Dakota County, and the Twin Cities metropolitan area. It is important to note that in child custody issues, Minnesota law mandates that this should be resolved in such a way that is in the best interests of the child. This can be found in section 518.17 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes. It can be expected that the parents will not be in agreement when it comes to child custody and visitation. However, it is essential for both parties to understand that having emotionally charged arguments is often destructive and will not lead towards the best resolution.

Lisa Amundson provides legal services for family law, divorce, divorce planning, and child custody in Minneapolis, including various towns and counties in Minnesota, such as: Burnsville, Eagan, Rosemount, St. Paul, Apple Valley, Woodbury, Roseville, Oakdale, Inver Grove Heights, Cottage Grove, Bloomington, Scott County, Hennepin County, Dakota County, Ramsey County, Washington County, and around the Twin Cities metro area. She is licensed to practice law in all district and federal courts in Minnesota.
