

Man Says ?Thank You? to WhiteSands for the Gift of His Sobriety After Receiving Addiction Treatment

March 22, 2023

Fort Myers, Florida - March 22, 2023 -
Fort Myers, Florida ? A man who got help with fighting addiction at WhiteSands Alcohol & Drug Rehab in Florida is praising the treatment provider for his experience.

In a recent 5-star Google review, Frank applauded WhiteSands? addiction treatment center in Fort Myers.

?Thank you for my gift of sobriety and living another day,? he wrote.

WhiteSands Treatment is no stranger to glowing reviews and praise for its work in helping people of all ages and from all walks of life achieve recovery after struggling with addiction.

The network of centers across Florida offers a mix of outpatient and inpatient treatment, all provided by highly-experienced staff members who are passionate about working with clients to overcome substance abuse and live their best possible lives.

In addition to evidence-based treatments and therapies, people who turn to WhiteSands Treatment for help will find a treatment plan tailored to them that includes a holistic approach to addiction.

All facilities are safe and comfortable, with strategically-located centers across Florida that mean help is available not far away from almost any point in the state.

WhiteSands has garnered national attention for its unique KO Addiction program ? a professionally-run boxing program that builds both body and mind for the clients who achieve recovery here.

The Florida-based network of centers has ranked at the top of Newsweek magazine?s list of America?s Best Addiction Treatment Centers for three consecutive years, another testament to just how effective WhiteSands is at helping people get better and discover the building blocks to a healthier, brighter future.
