April 03, 2023

Washington, District of Columbia - April 03, 2023 -
MyProMovers, one of the leading local moving companies in Northern Virginia, is offering safe piano moving services handled by its expert crew of experienced moving technicians.

Grand pianos are considered a luxury item that not only gives homeowners a creative outlet but also adds elegance to the home décor. At the lower end, they start at around $10,000 and high-end grand pianos can cost upwards of $30,000. The creations from established brands such as Steinway can even be had for over $100,000. So, when it comes time to move, homeowners need to be highly selective of the crew to whom they entrust the item.

?Apart from being extremely valuable, pianos also hold sentimental value as it is often the focal point of the home?s interior décor and has the homeowner?s pleasant memories attached to it,? the spokesperson for MyProMovers says. ?If it is an heirloom that was passed down in the family through generations, you have to be extra careful due to its age and what it means for everybody in the household. Any rough handling and you can have nicks or scratches that can be very expensive to repair. For more details, visit our website.?

MyProMovers has assembled an elite team of piano-moving professionals who are trained in packing and transporting pianos. The top-rated Virginia moving company handles every step of the process using the utmost precision on account of its patient crew members and high-tech moving equipment. For example, its air-ride and hydraulic lift gate-equipped trucks are fully capable of transporting any kind of piano, whether a spinet, upright, baby-grand, or concert-grand piano, safely over great distances.

The company?s movers will fully wrap the piano and protect the floors before it is even budged. If there are any legs, they will be disassembled at the original location and reassembled at the destination. While moving the piano through the house and onto the truck, the team uses piano moving boards and custom piano dollies to ensure there is no damage.

?As a fully licensed and insured VA moving company,? the spokesperson says, ?we offer customers standard valuation coverage for their pianos at no additional cost, with no preconceived limits or deductibles. We do not work with outside subcontractors. All our crew members are in-house employees who have been thoroughly vetted to operate at the company?s high standards. Check our YouTube video channel to find out more about us.?

Most specialized piano moving companies can move them locally for between $300 and $600. MyProMovers can do it at much more affordable rates, especially when one considers the cost of moving the rest of the bulky items in the house such as gun safes, hot tubs, and Jacuzzis. Customers can even avail of its convenient local storage options where pianos can be stored for the short or long term. The monthly piano storage price is $85 a month for upright pianos and $135 a month for baby grand pianos.

?Our piano movers in Northern Virginia have the right tools for the job and will perfectly pack your piano and related accessories,? the spokesperson for MyProMovers says. ?You don?t have to lift a finger. You can rest assured knowing that the experts are on the job and they care about your prized belonging just as much as you do. With MyProMovers, you get to enjoy the stress-free convenience of having your piano transported by a piano moving company safely to any location across the DC Metropolitan area or anywhere on the East Coast. MyProMovers has received overwhelming praise from local customers on its Google Business Profile where it has a near-perfect rating of 4.9 out of 5.0 from over 900 reviews. One customer shares their experience by saying, ?Can?t believe how professional Joseph and his crew were. They took great care of my mother?s Steinway grand piano while moving it from Stephens City to Alexandria, VA. They knew exactly how to carefully disassemble it, wrap it, transport it, and gently put it right where I wanted it. I couldn?t be happier. I definitely recommend MyProMovers for any moving needs, especially something heavy and delicate.?
