March 27, 2023 -

Odenton, Md.? Allogram, Inc., a custom awards company in Maryland, is thrilled to announce the merger of their two existing locations into one larger shop at 8251 Telegraph Rd Suite I, Odenton, MD 21113.

Allogram has been of service to the local community for nearly 40 years. ?We are really excited to return to our Odenton roots - where we first opened in 1985," stated Allogram owner, Amanda Gianotti.

With the merger of their two existing locations into one larger location comes quite a few added bonuses. To start, the extra square footage available at the new location means that Allogram, Inc. will have more on-hand, raw inventory for customers to choose from and personalize.

In turn, the new location provides ample room for all of their state-of-the-art equipment such as powerful laser and traditional rotary engravers. Not to mention, equipment that can facilitate full-color sublimation, full-color thermal head printing, direct and dimensional UV printing, as well as woodworking and sand carving.

Allogram specializes in a wide variety of custom items from sports trophies all the way to ceremonial items such as gavels and shovels. Customers can choose from an expansive list of materials including glass, acrylic, mirrored acrylic, corian, lucite, brass, bronze, vinyl, walnut, oak, cherry, and more.

In addition to their physical store location in Odenton, Allogram, Inc. offers online ordering through their website at allogram.com for those who prefer shopping from home.

Since opening their doors in 1985, Allogram's commitment to quality customer service and products has earned them many loyal customers as evidenced by their 4.9 rating on Google. In fact, a recent review by Lynn Morrell stated, ?Allogram Inc provides exceptional service and selection of products. The inventory is enormous and the staff are friendly, knowledgeable, and eager to meet your needs. Quick turnaround time too!?

At Allogram, Inc., patrons can find something special for every occasion or event. Whether an individual is looking for an award to recognize outstanding employee performance or a gift for an upcoming wedding or graduation celebration - Allogram can handle it. For more information about their services or products, give them a call at (410) 551-7700.
