

GetDandy Introduces AI and ChatGPT-Powered Automated Review Reply Feature

October 12, 2023

Irvine, California - October 12, 2023 -
GetDandy, the innovative AI and ChatGPT-powered reputation automation and review removal platform, has introduced a new feature that enables businesses to automate their review replies. This advanced technology is available at www.getdandy.com and can respond to customer reviews across multiple platforms, including Google, TripAdvisor, Opentable and Facebook.

GetDandy's automated review reply feature uses AI and ChatGPT to generate personalized, empathetic, and accurate responses to customer reviews. With this technology, businesses can respond quickly and efficiently to customer feedback, improving their online reputation and building customer trust.

"GetDandy's new automated review reply feature will revolutionize the way businesses manage their online reputation," said Veronica Marin, PR Manager of GetDandy. "Our platform uses advanced technology to ensure businesses can focus on their core operations while we handle their reputation management."

The automated review reply feature has numerous benefits, including improved customer engagement, increased customer satisfaction, and streamlined reputation management. By responding quickly and empathetically to customer feedback, businesses can build long-lasting customer relationships and enhance their online presence.

GetDandy's automated review reply feature has already been recognized by industry experts for its innovative approach to reputation management. A recent article on GlobeNewswire highlighted the platform's ability to remove bad reviews from Google, thanks to its advanced technology.

"We are proud to introduce our new feature that will help businesses improve their online reputation and build stronger relationships with their customers," said Marin. "We believe that our automated review reply feature is the future of reputation management."
