One 5-star review left on the company's Google Business Profile makes a note of the high-quality equipment, polite team, and straightforward process. Madison K. said, "We have used Dayna's 2 years in a row now for backyard birthday parties (tables, chairs, canopies). Everyone is so amazing at this company! From start to finish- friendly, polite and efficient during booking, while dropping off, and of course picking back up. The whole process is so straightforward & stress free (which is a huge bonus when you already have so many other moving pieces that go along with planning an event). We have recommended this company to others in good faith that they will receive top notch service, and we will be repeat customers for sure. Thank you so much for everything!?
