Citrus Heights, CA ? Citrus Heights Tree Service Experts is proud to announce the launch of their new tree-inspired tasting menu in partnership with a local chef. The unique menu has been crafted to celebrate and honor trees through the flavors of a diverse array of ingredients and dishes.

Foy Elliot, CEO of Citrus Heights Tree Service Experts, commented on the unique collaboration: ?At Citrus Heights Tree Service Experts, we are passionate about trees and the environment, so when it came to creating a menu that celebrates our love for trees, it was the perfect opportunity for us to partner with a local chef who shares our vision for honoring nature.?

The menu consists of nine courses featuring ingredients from around the world, each inspired by a different tree species. For instance, the first course features a refreshing citrus salad made from oranges grown in California, inspired by the orange tree. The second course offers a flavorful walnut risotto inspired by the English walnut tree.

Subsequent courses feature grilled lamb chops served over roasted potatoes and grilled vegetables, sweet potato gnocchi tossed with fresh sage and a white wine cream sauce, and a creamy cheesecake topped with a strawberry rhubarb compote, each inspired by different trees.
