Philadelphia, PA - Philadelphia Tree Service Experts has announced its partnership with a local theater for the upcoming production of "The Taming of the Shrew." Philadelphia Tree Service Experts is providing expert tree knowledge and services to create a unique set design incorporating trees and foliage to bring the play to life on stage.

Clair Yars, CEO of Philadelphia Tree Service Experts, shared her enthusiasm for the project: "We are so excited about this amazing opportunity to combine our love of trees, nature, and art all in one place. We can't wait to see how our work will come together on stage and be enjoyed by audiences everywhere."

In addition to providing tree expertise, Philadelphia Tree Service Experts is donating several species of plants and shrubs native to the Philadelphia area that will be used in set design and providing hands-on support and advice during construction. The company is also actively involved in other aspects of the production, such as helping with budgeting and accommodations for the cast and crew.

The play's director, Luisa Adams, says she was drawn to working with Philadelphia Tree Service Experts due to their commitment to sustainability and desire to use natural materials whenever possible. "When we heard about their mission to protect and conserve our urban forests, we knew they were the perfect partner for us. They have helped and gone above and beyond to ensure this production succeeds."

The play is scheduled to open in May 2023 at the Phoenix Theatre in Philadelphia, with previews beginning mid-April. Tickets will go on sale on April 1st. In addition, Philadelphia Tree Service Experts is offering a unique discount code for students and seniors who wish to attend the production.

Adams further commented on her excitement to collaborate on this ambitious project. "This will be an incredible show, and I'm thrilled that we get to work with Philadelphia Tree Service Experts on making it happen. With their help, we can bring this classic story to life in a way that's never been done before. It's going to be a truly unique experience for everyone involved."

Philadelphia Tree Service Experts is dedicated to protecting and preserving urban forests throughout Philadelphia and its surrounding areas. They specialize in tree care, including pruning, removals, stump grinding, disease diagnosis, and more. As part of their mission, they strive to foster an appreciation of nature through education and outreach programs focusing on proper tree maintenance and safety.
