Alpharetta, GA ? Tree Service Alpharetta, the premier tree service provider in the Atlanta area, is pleased to announce a partnership with a local winery to create an exceptional wine using fruit from local trees. This unique collaboration combines the expertise of both organizations to create a distinct and flavorful wine that celebrates the beauty and bounty of nature.

"We are thrilled to be working with a local winery to produce this one-of-a-kind product," said Elliot Craven, CEO of Tree Service Alpharetta. "It's an exciting opportunity to showcase our commitment to preserving and protecting the environment while highlighting our community's amazing local food and beverage products."

The collaborative project will involve sourcing fruit from select trees throughout the Alpharetta area and turning it into a signature wine. Tree Service Alpharetta will be responsible for harvesting the fruit from the trees, while the winery will handle the fermentation and distillation process.
