The company charges $75 per ton of waste collected, allowing it to make true to its promise to never charge its customers for anything that they don't use. The company also charges $10 per additional day of rental allowing immense flexibility to homeowners working on DIY home improvement projects and commercial clients who might have to deal with moving project timelines.

Whether you are working on a simple home remodeling project or tearing out an entire property for your clients, the spokesperson for Ironbound Containers says, "you need a trustworthy and reasonably priced dumpster rental service that always keeps its promises. Here at Ironbound, we have worked very hard to ensure we are the ideal waste management partner for you in Wilmington and surrounding communities. Apart from our punctual and professional drivers and helpful office staff, our clients also love and appreciate us for our convenient online booking system, flexible scheduling options, and cost-effective pricing structure. Call us today and find out why so many homeowners and business owners in Wilmington have come to rely on our services."

Ironbound Containers delivers its dumpsters free of charge within its service area which includes Leland, Southport, Hampstead, Burgaw, Oak Island, Wilmington, Wrightsville Beach, Castle Hayne, Rocky Point, Winnabow, Carolina Beach, Hampstead, Currie, Kure Beach, Holly Ridge, Bolivia, Atkinson, and all areas in between. In case the customer or the job site is outside its service area, Ironbound Dumpsters can still make the delivery for a nominal charge based on the distance.

Several of the company's clients have praised Ironbound Containers in their glowing 5-star reviews. One customer talks about the experience by saying, "Shortly after buying my first home, a major storm uprooted trees and almost destroyed my yard. I've never rented a dumpster before, but the staff at Ironbound really helped me with the situation. They were courteous, respectful, and helpful. Working with them made a stressful circumstance much more pleasant, and I will always recommend them to anyone needing a dumpster rental."

Another homeowner writes, "I booked a dumpster from this company to renovate my kitchen, and I'm so glad I did! They delivered on time, put down pads to protect my driveway, and were extremely friendly and professional. Not only did they have the best prices, I was also able to book online! The whole process was smooth and enjoyable. I will always recommend this company!"
