The Cougar Restoration Team is On-Call For Fire Damage Restoration Services

April 03, 2023

TIGARD, OR - April 03, 2023 -
Portland, Oregon: Fire damage can break all of a sudden and leave homes and businesses in a state of disarray. For this reason, Cougar Restoration local company in Portland is on-call to respond to any nearby emergencies. From small fire damage to extensive fire disasters, their experienced fire restoration specialists are available 24/7 to assess damages quickly and begin restoring homes and businesses.

In September 2022, the National Fire Protection Association's report ?Fire Loss in the United States? announced that local fire departments dealt with an astonishing 1,353,500 fires throughout last year. The number of fire losses correlates to the demand for fire damage restoration services like those offered by Cougar Restoration in Portland.

Tedious fire damage can take a toll on the affected home or business. That is why Cougar Restoration?s professionals strive to minimize this impact by providing top-notch fire and smoke damage restoration services. With years of building restoration expertise, the team understands that fire damage goes beyond what meets the eye. Thus, they evaluate the full scope of fire damage to determine what materials are salvageable or need to be replaced.

Upon receiving a call, Cougar Restoration technicians are dispatched to the affected location and begin with a full fire damage assessment. They create and discuss fire damage reports, estimates, and fire reconstruction plans with the property owner before the restoration process begins. The team strives to restore affected places to their pre-fire damage state.

Equipped with HEPA-filtered fire restoration kits to trap dangerous fire soot particles, their services include cleaning up fire debris and soot-laden items. They also destroy fire odors with fogging treatments, apply specialized fire retardants and sealers, and repair damaged drywall, ceiling, insulation, plumbing, heating, ventilation systems, and more. The company?s fire damage cleanup and fire restoration process is the cornerstone of their services.
