April 04, 2023 -
Fullerton, CA - Fullerton Tree Experts is proud to announce the successful completion of their tree trimming services on the city's local bike trails and paths. The company was contracted by a non-profit organization in the City of Fullerton to perform the necessary tree trimming services to ensure that cyclists have a safe experience while riding on these trails and paths.

Juan Warren, CEO of Fullerton Tree Experts, said, "We are proud to have been able to help improve the safety of our local bike trails and paths in Fullerton. We know how important it is for cyclists to have access to safe and well-maintained trails, and we're happy that we were able to provide this service to the community."

The tree trimming services provided by Fullerton Tree Experts included removing dead branches and limbs, pruning overgrown trees, and removing any obstructions that could cause accidents. All of this work was done with the utmost care and attention to detail to ensure that the trails remain safe for cyclists of all ages.

The non-profit requesting Fullerton Tree Experts to improve the bike paths also expressed gratitude for the services. The head of the non-profit organization, Lisa Pines, said, "The tree trimming services provided by Fullerton Tree Experts are invaluable to our community. We are thankful they were willing to take on this project and ensure our bike trails and paths remain safe."

For more than 20 years, Fullerton Tree Experts has provided expert tree-trimming services throughout Southern California. The company is dedicated to providing high-quality services at an affordable price, focusing on customer satisfaction. Fullerton Tree Experts' team of experienced arborists can handle any tree trimming or removal job, big or small.

In addition to their tree trimming services, Fullerton Tree Experts also offers other services, such as stump grinding, landscape maintenance, and aerial lift rentals. The company is dedicated to helping the local community maintain its trees to create a safe and beautiful environment for everyone to enjoy.

Juan Warren concluded, "At Fullerton Tree Experts, we are committed to providing top-notch tree care services for our clients. Our team of experienced professionals is dedicated to delivering exceptional results every time. We always look for ways to serve our community better and look forward to continuing our work in Fullerton for many years."
