Detroit, MI ? Detroit Tree Service Pro, a premier local tree service company, has partnered with a local candle maker to create an innovative line of aromatherapy products made from natural tree scents. This unique collaboration is designed to bring the healing power of nature into the home, allowing people to enjoy the therapeutic effects of trees without ever having to step outside.

The new line of products combines the expertise of Detroit Tree Service Pro, which specializes in providing expert tree care services such as pruning, trimming, and removal, with the creative flair of a local candle maker. The result is a range of carefully crafted products to capture the unique aromas of different kinds of trees and make them available for home use.

"At Detroit Tree Service Pro, we believe in the healing power of nature, and we're always looking for new ways to bring it into our customers' homes," said James Mora, CEO of Detroit Tree Service Pro. "We've chosen only the finest natural materials for these products to ensure that they have all the therapeutic benefits associated with trees, but without any of the mess or hassle of having a tree in your home."

The line includes five distinct aromas designed to evoke the scents of different types of trees. These include 'Pine & Cedarwood,' 'Palm & Oak,' 'Spruce & Fir,' 'Lemon & Lime,' and 'Citrus & Eucalyptus.' Each product is handmade in small batches using high-quality essential oils, beeswax, and other natural ingredients.

The products are designed to be used indoors and outdoors and offer a variety of benefits. Not only do they help to reduce stress and anxiety levels, but they also act as natural air fresheners and can even help to boost energy levels and focus.

"These products offer an easy and convenient way for people to experience the calming effects of trees without ever leaving their homes," added Mora. "They're perfect for anyone who wants to enjoy the therapeutic properties of nature at any time."

The new line of products is now available exclusively through Detroit Tree Service Pro's website. Customers can choose from individual candles or gift sets with multiple aromas, making them ideal for birthdays, anniversaries, or any special occasion.
