Los Angeles Tree Professionals Launches Complimentary Landscape Design Consultation Services for Homeowners

April 04, 2023

April 04, 2023 -
Los Angeles, CA ? Los Angeles Tree Professionals is proud to announce the launch of their complimentary landscape design consultation services for homeowners in the Greater Los Angeles area. The newly launched service will provide customers with a comprehensive landscape design plan tailored to their needs and preferences.

Founded by CEO Dennis Do, Los Angeles Tree Professionals is a family-owned business that provides expert tree care services, including planting, pruning, trimming, maintenance, and landscaping design. With over 25 years of experience, Mr. Do is passionate about helping people transform their outdoor spaces into lush and vibrant places that bring joy to the entire family.

"As an expert arborist, I have seen firsthand how a well-designed landscape can improve the look and feel of any home," said Mr. Do. "That's why we are excited to offer our customers this complimentary landscape design consultation service. We want to help more people create beautiful outdoor spaces they can be proud of."

The complimentary landscape design consultation offered by Los Angeles Tree Professionals includes a consultation with one of their experienced landscape designers, who will assess the customer's property and discuss their vision and goals for the project. From there, the designer will create a detailed plan outlining the proposed design, layout, materials needed, and estimated costs. The plan will also include a timeline for completion. Customers can use the plan to complete the project themselves or hire Los Angeles Tree Professionals to do the work.

Los Angeles Tree Professionals has been serving Los Angeles homeowners since 1995, providing high-quality services emphasizing customer satisfaction. Their team of experienced professionals is committed to delivering exceptional results with every job they take on.

"At Los Angeles Tree Professionals, we strive to exceed our customers' expectations with every project we take on," said Mr. Do. "We believe that everyone deserves a beautiful outdoor space that brings joy and happiness to their family, and we are here to make that dream a reality."

In addition to offering complimentary landscape design consultations, Los Angeles Tree Professionals provides a wide range of tree care services, including pruning, trimming, planting, and maintenance. They also specialize in removing dead trees, clearing storm damage debris, and other hazardous jobs. No matter their service, Los Angeles Tree Professionals always puts safety first and follows all industry best practices.
