LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast ? a leader in property conveyancing in Australia, has announced they are launching a YouTube channel. Conveyancing is the legal process of transferring the ownership of a property from one party to another. While it may sound straightforward, the process itself can be complex and confusing for buyers and sellers who are not familiar with it. It requires drafting contracts, negotiating terms, drafting vendor statements, and navigating complicated restrictions to reach a settlement. Property lawyers at LEAD Conveyancing want to make it easier than ever for buyers and sellers to complete the conveyancing process. In addition to providing conveyancing management services, the team announced they want to educate clients via YouTube. The Youtube channel is another way the company can serve its clients.

On their Youtube channel, expect to see experts like Trinh Thai, Legal Director and founder of LEAD Conveyancing. Thai, with a double degree in Law and Psychology, has over 7 years of experience as a property lawyer and conveyancer. She built this company from the ground up with the vision of becoming a trustworthy, genuine conveyancing firm that takes the hassle out of buying or selling.

?LEAD Conveyancing is committed to providing honest, cost-effective, and timely conveyancing services,? she says. ?On Youtube, clients have a place to learn about the process and get acquainted with our staff. The videos go over common questions, introduce important topics, and show buyers and sellers resources they may not have had access to before.?

Other experts, like Kristy Fletcher ? Senior Lawyer and 5-star rated conveyancer, are set to contribute their knowledge to the Youtube platform. Fletcher, who has a graduate background in criminology and law, is an expert in contracts and negotiations, having worked with all types of clients, from multi-million dollar portfolios to everyday people. Fletcher sees the YouTube channel as an opportunity to reach a broader audience.

?Even though we are based in Australia, our YouTube channel can be seen from around the world,? says Fletcher. ?We can help educate people not only in our own backyard but from continents near and far.?

Legal matters tend to intimidate most buyers and sellers, Thai confirms. This is why LEAD Conveyancing offers to manage the conveyancing process from start to settlement. They handle the paperwork. They make the contacts. They negotiate and bring it to a settlement. And even though LEAD Conveyancing does 100% of the heavy lifting, no action is taken without the client?s expressed consent. The firm does its part to educate the client on the best possible course of action, but ultimately the decision is in the clients? hands.

?The company is huge on transparency and efficiency,? Thai says. ?There are no hidden fees, or unnecessary services to sign up for, nor is the process lengthy and drawn out. LEAD Conveyancing takes the stress out of getting a settlement, leaving customers free to focus on what really matters. Like preparing for their next move.?

Everything that makes the company what it is, Thai says, is based on their core values: leadership; evolution; authenticity; determination.

?Leadership in the office, but also in client affairs. Evolution in business because as the world changes, we must change to best serve our clients. Authenticity because let?s be real, there are plenty of fake conveyancers out there that can rob a person blind. We commit to being authentic to who we are, and why we do what we do. And finally, determination, because that?s what it takes to get the best settlement for the client.?

The efforts made by LEAD Conveyancing?s team do not go unnoticed by their clientele. Their Google reviews boast hundreds of 5-star ratings. They?ve won the ?Best Customer Service? Award three years in a row, and they also clinched the 2022 Word of Mouth Award. Each year, they serve hundreds of clients in the Queensland, NSW, and Victoria areas. Now with the YouTube channel, their reach will only grow.
