Atlanta, Georgia - April 05, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Mableton, a law firm that services Mableton, GA, is now providing the services of personal injury lawyers to individuals in Mableton and neighboring regions. The attorneys will evaluate each case from all perspectives, including past and future medical costs, the severity of the injuries sustained, and the impact of the accident on the victim's life. Utilizing the support of experts and their own expertise, the personal injury lawyers will determine the appropriate value for the client's claim and commence negotiations for settlement.

According to Chris Dietz, a spokesperson for Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Mableton, "A personal injury accident in Mableton can be life-altering. You may be left with extensive medical expenses following the accident. Additionally, you may receive calls from an insurance adjuster representing the at-fault party, offering you a settlement that they claim will compensate you for your injuries. Many individuals make the error of quickly accepting the offer without first consulting with an experienced Mableton personal injury attorney in Georgia. It is important to keep in mind that the insurance company is not on your side. The adjuster hopes to settle your claim quickly and on their terms, saving the insurance company a significant amount of money. If you accept an early settlement, you may be undervaluing your claim."

It is important to note that Georgia's personal injury laws enable a victim to pursue a claim in various situations. Each type of claim is distinct and requires the expertise of a skilled personal injury lawyer. At Kenneth Nugent, their accident injury lawyers have over 350 years of combined experience in handling various cases, such as motor vehicle accidents, bicycle accidents, slip and fall accidents, workplace accidents, defective products, medical malpractice, dog bites, nursing home abuse, construction accidents, and premises liability.

Although no one anticipates being involved in an accident and being injured, accidents occur every day, and many individuals suffer life-altering injuries while performing their daily activities. Chris Dietz states, "If you find yourself in this situation, you should not have to defend your own legal rights. It is important to remember that assistance is available when you are the innocent victim of negligence in our state. Our Mableton personal injury lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. recognize the severity of a personal injury claim. We are here to protect you and help you obtain the compensation you deserve following an accident. Our team brings over 350 years of combined experience in all types of injury claims. Let us walk with you along your road to recovery. For a free consultation, give us a call."

Established in 1989, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has a team of personal injury lawyers who are all qualified to assist clients with their personal injury claims. All of them have graduated from leading colleges and universities in the US and have diverse racial and socio-economic backgrounds. They are multilingual and have received various awards. They have also authored numerous law school journals and the Georgia State Bar Journal. They provide a free case evaluation for individuals seeking consultation and who believe they have a viable personal injury claim.
