April 17, 2023

April 17, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Stupid SEO Testers Group, consisting of Lee Witcher, Honey Witcher, and Carolyn Holzman, are excited to announce the launch of their latest website, Hugs4Holly.com - a website dedicated to encouraging Holly Starks to embrace the hugs of SEOs everywhere.

"We know how much Holly means to the SEO community, and we also know that she has a bit of a reputation for being a hug-rejector," said Lee Witcher, one of the co-founders of The Stupid SEO Testers Group. "So we decided to create a website that would help Holly realize just how amazing hugs can be."

Hugs4Holly.com is a virtual hug-a-thon that allows SEOs from all over the world to send Holly Starks a virtual hug. Users can choose from a variety of huggable characters, including a teddy bear, a panda, a unicorn, and even a cactus (for those who like it prickly). Each hug can be customized with a personal message, and all hugs will be displayed on the Hugs4Holly.com website for Holly to see.

"We're hoping that Holly will be overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and support from the SEO community," said Honey Witcher, another co-founder of The Stupid SEO Testers Group. "We want her to know that we're here for her, and that we're not going to stop hugging her until she realizes just how great hugs can be!"

Carolyn Holzman, the third member of The Stupid SEO Testers Group, added, "We believe that Hugs4Holly.com has the potential to change the world. Who knows, maybe one day we'll even win a Pulitzer Prize for our groundbreaking work in the field of virtual hugging!"

Anyone who is an SEO who wants to show Holly Starks some love, head over to Hugs4Holly.com and send her a virtual hug today. Everyone can show Holly just how great hugs can be.
