They truly exceeded all of my expectations with their work on our bathroom. Now that I am considering a kitchen remodel, I know where to turn without any doubt.? Our team of experienced experts is dedicated to bringing your dream kitchen to life. From design consultations and product selection to construction and beyond, we provide full service solutions that bring both creativity and technical expertise to the table.?

They provide various tips for the kitchen remodeling. For instance, one important tip is to ensure wide walkways around the kitchen. Such walkways have to be at least 36 inches and the walkways within the cooking area need to be wider or at least 42 inches wide for a kitchen designed for one person cooking at a time. For kitchens designed for two cooks working simultaneously, the walkways should be at least 48 inches wide. With regards to the kitchen islands, it is vital to consider first their function. If the homeowner wants to use them for cooking and eating, there should be enough space for a cook-top to be safely separated from the space when dining.

Randall James Lipp adds, ?No matter what kind of remodel you?re looking for, our team can help make it reality. Whether you?re aiming for an open concept kitchen with more room for entertaining or a complete overhaul that gives new life to an outdated layout, we have the experience and resources to make it happen. We also take time to review with you any changes or upgrades that need to be made during the process, so there are no unexpected surprises along the way.?
