

Anaheim Lighthouse Alumni Cheer on Angels vs. Dodgers in Pre-Season Game

April 21, 2023

April 21, 2023 -
Anaheim, California - Anaheim Lighthouse, a leading addiction treatment center in Orange County, organized a pre-season baseball game event for the Anaheim Lighthouse Alumni on March 27th, where 64 alumni members came together at the Angels Stadium to cheer on the Los Angeles Angels as they faced off against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The pre-season match brought together Lighthouse alumni from across Southern California for a day filled with entertainment and excitement. The event's turnout was overwhelming as alumni of all ages and backgrounds gathered together to connect, support each other, and enjoy a day of camaraderie and baseball.

Sara Alba, Alumni Coordinator of Anaheim Lighthouse said that Anaheim Lighthouse actively hosts events like this throughout the year to provide opportunities for alumni to connect and uphold each other in their recovery journey.

"It is a pleasure to see our alumni come together, having fun in the name of recovery. We are excited about the involvement of our alumni in this event. It is an illustration of the passion and commitment of the Lighthouse alumni towards the purpose of promoting a sober, healthy and fun lifestyle," added Alba.

Nate B., an alumni member who attended the event said, "Being at the game with so many Anaheim Lighthouse alumni was an amazing experience. It's a reminder of how far we've come and how much we've achieved in our journey of recovery."

Crystal G., another Anaheim Lighthouse Alumni member, commented, "It's great to be part of a community where we can come together and have fun without the need for drugs or alcohol. We can enjoy life sober and encourage each other along the way."
