

Unique Promise from The River Source Helps Phoenix Residents Break the Cycle of Addiction

April 20, 2023

Phoenix, Arizona - April 20, 2023 -
Phoenix, Arizona ? Phoenix residents are getting peace of mind and the expert help they need to overcome drug and alcohol addiction in Arizona thanks to a unique guarantee from The River Source Addiction Treatment & Recovery.

The River Source is now celebrating its 20th anniversary of operating premier addiction treatment centers in Arizona known for their evidence-based approaches to treatment, as well as offering naturopathic therapies like nutritional treatments, massage and yoga therapies, and dry infrared sauna therapy.

But it stands out among other operators of drug and alcohol rehab centers in Arizona because of its distinctive 100% Recovery Guarantee that effectively offers a safety net to its patients. The terms are straightforward, but the implications are anything but simple: If a person who successfully completes the full continuum of care at The River Source relapses within one year, they can return for help ? at no additional charge.

It?s just another reason why The River Source has been recognized by former and current clients, top organizations, and family members and loved ones of people in recovery as providing the best drug and alcohol rehab in Arizona.

The addiction treatment and recovery provider operates a network of five locations in Arizona, including an inpatient alcohol and drug rehab in Phoenix and an outpatient drug and alcohol rehab in Phoenix?s West Valley region.

Other locations include inpatient facilities in Tucson and Arizona City and an outpatient addiction treatment center in Gilbert.

In addition to inpatient and outpatient addiction treatment and medically-supervised drug and alcohol detox services, The River Source makes sure patients have the tools and support they need long after rehab to avoid relapse and enjoy their recovery. Aftercare offerings include the Lifetime Alumni Program, which organizes meetings, workshops, and other resources designed to keep people connected with their peers.

To learn more about the work of The River Source and why it?s recognized as a top provider of drug and alcohol rehab in Phoenix and across Arizona, contact the inpatient Phoenix addiction treatment facility by calling 866-863-5680 or visiting www.theriversource.org.
