2 the Point, a newly launched tattoo and piercing shop in Mars Hill, NC, is inviting local customers to explore its work and find out more about the custom designs that it can ink for them.

The body ink and cover-up services at the Mars Hill tattoo shop are spearheaded by Carlos Marshall, a licensed veteran tattoo artist with over 24 years of experience and mastery in a variety of styles including watercolor, new-school, and old-school, realism, gothic cover-ups, and graffiti. To date, he has etched over 777 tattoos for his clients, helping them bring their vision to life with unique and custom designs. Carlos has honed his tattooing skills over the years serving clients all over the country, including in Richmond, VA, Washington DC, Gloucester, VA, and Maryland, among others.

"I love what I do," says Carlos, "and that is what drives me to give this art form everything I've got. I also love creating with the help of my friends. I feel tattooing is a collaborative process between me and my clients. Getting to know them better and understanding what they want from their tattoo is a joy for me. Seeing the happiness in their eyes when they see the custom design that I have crafted for them is what my art is all about."

Carlos has already earned the trust of his clients in Mars Hill as there are several reviews on the shop's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/828tattoo>, praising his work. One client talks about her experience with Carlos by saying, "I had an absolutely amazing experience here. I would truly recommend anyone coming here. They are very professional and caring towards customers. Also something really special I liked - he will draw your design next to you so that you see the whole process :)"

2 the Point also offers piercings by body piercer Ryan Endres. Clients have also thanked Ryan profusely for his skills and customer service in multiple testimonials. One mother recounts her experience by saying, "Amazing piercing!! My 10-year-old got her ears pierced and Ryan did a great job keeping her calm and having a fun experience. And he even pierced her squish mellow penny's ear too!!! She had a fantastic experience! I will definitely be going here for more piercings and probably a tattoo soon!!! Thanks so much, Ryan!!!!?

When asked about his work at 2 the Point, Ryan says, "Getting body piercings, especially your first one, can be scary yet thrilling. I do my best to make my clients feel as comfortable as they can be and gently guide them through the process. At the end of the day, I want it to be a relaxed and uplifting experience that my clients look back fondly on and cherish for a lifetime."

Carlos and Ryan work together to ensure all clients love the process of getting a tattoo or getting pierced. A review summarizes the duo's customer service by saying, "Absolutely the best and friendliest customer service. Felt more like family than a customer. They are so easy to talk to and so professional. Very clean and top-notch sanitation. Checked on me through the tattoo and the piercing, even after I left. Do whatever they can to work with your schedule and the work is absolutely perfect. I love my tattoo and my spider bites. Totally going back for my other tattoo ideas and piercings."

Clients can visit the shop's website and book an online appointment for a free consultation, piercing, or tattoo by filling out a simple form. Tattoo consultations require a $100 deposit. Ryan and Carlos also welcome walk-ins at the shop which is located at 72 Anderson Street, Mars Hill, NC. Its working hours vary but clients can plan on visiting between 3 PM and midnight every day.
