Leading Cigar Brand Aims to Bring the Cigar Lounge into the Comfort of Consumers' Homes

PUNTA CANA -- Vivaldi Cigars, a retailer of the best hand rolled Dominican longfillers, announced today the launch of its new online store. The brand's online presence is a strategic play in its goal to be known as the premier destination for top quality cigars from the best tobacco plants in the Dominican Republic for the most reasonable prices.

Vivaldi cigars are made from hand-picked tobacco from Santiago in the Dominican Republic, rivaling cigars produced in both Cuba and the United States. Vivaldi's online shop currently features the Robusto, Robusto Maduro, Robusto Connecticut, Ejecutivo and the Anniversario. The Robusto and Ejecutivo are available in packs of five and four respectively, with prices starting at $30.

In addition to the launch of the online store, Vivaldi Cigars is also launching an online smoking Master Class. The classes will be live and will be led by Bert van Kol, the owner of Vivaldi Cigars. For decades, he has catered to an international clientele in the Punta Cana region, sharing knowledge with his clients about everything from cigar production to how to make the smoking experience more enjoyable.

The class is designed to help consumers become better smokers, learn to enjoy their cigars to the fullest and bring the cigar lounge into the comfort of the average consumer's home. Participants will become part of the Vivaldi Brotherhood and learn the answers to some of the most common questions, including why cigars may be bitter, how to cut cigars, how to determine the appropriate humidity for storing cigars and if cigars can be relit. All classes are free and will be conducted via Skype.
