January 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Netdirect Distribution, a business in Federal Heights, CO, is proud to announce the launch of their brand new Corporate website. The site has been designed to give greater clarity of the services offered by the company and to enable customers to communicate directly with them at a time that is convenient to them. The site is already proving to be very popular.

"We offer a huge variety of services at Netdirect Distribution and we felt it was time that we joined the 21st century in this," says Carlos Salguero, President of Netdirect Distribution. "We engaged a brilliant website design team who have developed our site and we really couldn't be happier about it. We finally have a way to show our customers exactly what we are about in an easily presented fashion."

The company offers a wealth of services, including fulfillment services and Amazon FBA preparation. They also provide print and marketing services, brand management. Additionally, they offer eCommerce domination options for manufacturers and brand owners that need the right exposure of their brand on the internet to generate maximum revenue for their products.

The work that has been done by the company has been very well-received by their many customers. The new website gives them an opportunity to share their experiences, and many have already done so. "I can't imagine doing business without Netdirect," says Jaime Cross, CEO of M I G Soap and Body Co. "They have streamlined our distribution, scaled our Amazon sales with their proven techniques, and have given our company a much needed opportunity to breathe and focus on building our brand. The team at Netdirect is organized, driven, and they operate as a well oiled machine. We are blown away by the results we have seen in such a short amount of time working with them, and look forward to a great future of growth and impact."

The new website has been designed to allow people access to and information about the various services offered by Netdirect Distribution. An easy contact form has also been included for those who want to know more or who are ready to get to work with the company on their own design and distribution needs.
