Central Aire Heating & A/C Inc takes pride in providing various kinds of air conditioner services including air conditioner repair and maintenance in Bossier City, LA and neighboring areas. Their goal is to ensure that customer have a good air conditioner (AC) system that is working optimally to help beat the heat in Louisiana. They have North American Technician Excellence (NATE)-certified technicians who will visit the home of the customer and provide a comprehensive inspect of the AC system.

Mike Mills, President and owner of Central Aire Heating & A/C Inc, says, ?If you need AC maintenance in Bossier City, LA, Central Aire Heating & A/C, Inc. takes pride in our expertise in all things related to cooling. We?re a proud, certified Trane dealer. Plus, our skilled, expert technicians are there to take care of all of your AC tune-up needs no matter what your made or model. We aim to keep our customers satisfied and comfortable. We do our best to keep your system running efficiently and effectively. Helping you escape the dreaded Louisiana heat and attain the comfort you deserve is our #1 priority.?

Their NATE-certified technicians, who are knowledgeable, thorough, friendly, and dedicated, will check for a number of possible issues. These include: ensuring that the condenser coils are clean and breathable; making sure there are sufficient fluid levels in the system; cleaning or replacement of the filters; inspection of lines, electrical wiring, and all connections; making sure that all fans are working properly; and checking that the thermostat is functioning properly.

With the AC tune-up service they provide, they will make sure that the AC system is running properly, ensuring that client and family will be cool and comfortable despite the heat of the summer season. In the event that the AC system requires repair, they can also provide AC repair in Bossier City. They also take pride in providing AC repair results with lasting results. The company has a licensed and insured team to ensure the client?s protection and peace of mind, and they guarantee high quality in everything they provide.

They want to emphasize that there are a number of indicators when it is time to schedule an AC repair. These include: uneven air delivery; an AC system that is blowing hot air; noise or banging sounds while the AC is in operation; and a fully unresponsive AC unit.

Central Aire Heating & A/C Inc can also provide AC installation services, including the installation of a smart thermostat, which is a Wi-Fi enabled device that will automatically adjust the temperature settings in the home for the best possible AC performance.

Founded in 1974, Central Aire Heating & A/C Inc is a family-owned business that has been focused on providing quality workmanship and services with the commitment to exceed customer expectations. Owned by Mike Mills since 2002, this company offers AC sales, installation, and prompt and dependable residential and commercial AC services for the Shreveport/Bossier City area. They are the oldest Trane dealer in the area and also provide a broad variety of innovative and high tech Trane HVAC products.

The quality of AC services they have provided has received many highly positive reviews by their clients. They have an overall rating of 5.0 out of 5 stars on Google and in one recent review, Tom R. gave them five stars and said, ?They check my HVAC system every six months to make sure that everything is working properly. I am very pleased with the service that they provide.? In another recent review, Teresa B. also gave them a five star rating and said, ?Always on time and friendly. Replaced A/C and Heat systems in 2020 and has a maintenance plan that they come and check everything every 6 months.?
