The Executives Association of San Diego (EASD) has Announced a New Revenue Figure of $3,159,527

May 01, 2023

San Diego, California - May 01, 2023 -
The Executives Association of San Diego (EASD) has announced a new revenue figure of $3,159,527 from May 1, 2022, to April 30, 2023. The revenue has been self-reported by EASD members who regularly participate in weekly meetings, showcase and promote their businesses, and benefit from referrals generated by the Association.

The EASD is a professional organization that provides a platform for business leaders to network, share knowledge and expertise, and generate business opportunities. Members of the association represent a wide range of industries, including finance, law, real estate, healthcare, and technology, celebrating 100 years in operation this year.

While the share of revenue generated by each member varies based on factors such as business size, transaction volume, industry, availability, history, and engagement, the message is clear: The EASD creates connections that lead to tangible business results.

"Reaching this revenue milestone is a testament to the value of the EASD and the power of networking," said

Charles Murch, Chairman of the EASD. "Our members are committed to building relationships, sharing best practices, and generating business opportunities for themselves and their peers. We are proud of the impact that the EASD has on the San Diego business community, and we look forward to continuing to foster connections and support our members' success."

The EASD is a membership-based organization that offers a range of benefits to its members, including weekly meetings, networking events, educational opportunities, and business referrals. To learn more about the EASD and how to become a member, visit the Association's website..
