AVENTURA, FL - May 02, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

IMHO Reviews, a trusted company that focuses on helping people make informed decisions about products and services, has shared an exclusive 35% off discount on MasterClass annual memberships just in time for Mother's Day. Vitaliy Lano, the CEO of IMHO Reviews, recently highlighted this limited-time offer as the perfect opportunity to provide mothers with an empowering and inspiring gift.

MasterClass is an online learning platforms that offers programs taught by celebrity instructors, such as Natalie Portman, Kris Jenner, Timbaland, Hans Zimmer, Shonda Rhimes, Serena Williams, Gordon Ramsay, and others. According to Lano, the MasterClass discount will make the annual membership even more affordable for those who want to give a truly unique and valuable present. With an annual membership, students can access over 180 courses covering various topics, from cooking to entrepreneurship, enabling them to explore their passions and acquire new skills. Right now, the annual membership costs $117 instead of the regular $180 per year. MasterClass also offers an option of purchasing a membership as a gift to someone.

"MasterClass is an excellent platform for moms who want to learn, grow, and potentially turn their talents into profitable side hustles," stated Vitaliy Lano. By offering an extensive range of courses taught by world-renowned experts, MasterClass enables individuals to develop new skills that can be utilized for personal growth, leisure, or even launching a successful side business.

To better understand how MasterClass works, Lano explained that the platform offers video lessons, downloadable materials, and interactive assignments. This allows learners to engage with the content at their own pace, making it an ideal fit for busy moms who need flexibility in their schedules. Additionally, MasterClass provides a supportive online community where learners can connect, share ideas, and seek feedback.

Vitaliy Lano also emphasized the high quality of classes available on MasterClass. He pointed out a few standout courses that cater to different interests, such as Donna Farhi's Yoga Foundations, Dominique Ansel's French Pastry Fundamentals, and Joan Benoit Samuelson's Runner's Mindset. Other notable offerings include interior design courses by Kelly Wearstler and Corey Damen Jenkins, as well as Sara Blakely's Self-Made Entrepreneurship class. These expert-led courses not only provide valuable insights but also practical guidance for mothers looking to enhance their skills or start new ventures.

IMHO Reviews also discussed MasterClass sessions which are distinct from regular MasterClass classes, as they provide an even more interactive and engaging learning experience. These sessions follow a structured curriculum, require the completion of real-world projects, offer meaningful feedback from experts, and foster a supportive community of learners. This comprehensive approach allows mothers to explore their passions and acquire new skills in a dynamic and nurturing environment.

"Masterclass sessions stand out from other online learning platforms by providing a unique, high-quality learning experience that goes beyond simple video lessons," stated Vitaliy. He emphasized that the platform's in-depth sessions cater to various interests and deliver practical guidance for students looking to enhance their skills or explore new areas.

Vitaliy Lano highlighted several Masterclass sessions perfect for Mother's Day, including Kim Scott's "Tackle the Hard Conversations with Radical Candor®," which teaches participants how to use the Radical Candor method to give and solicit feedback, cultivate an inclusive culture, and empower others through honesty. Other notable sessions recommended for mothers are Jen Atkin's "Style Your Own Hair for Any Occasion," which offers personalized haircare advice and techniques; Mindy Weiss's "Plan Your Dream Wedding," where participants learn how to create a personalized logistics binder covering budget, venue, menu, apparel, decor, and more; and Joanne Chang's "Bake Like a Pro," which helps learners develop professional baking skills and create award-winning bakes.

As Mother's Day approaches, IMHO Reviews' announcement of the 35% discount on MasterClass annual memberships presents a thoughtful alternative to traditional gifts like flowers and chocolates. By giving the gift of knowledge, family members can help empower the special moms in their lives to pursue their passions and dreams. With the wide variety of courses available, there's something for every mom to enjoy and benefit from.

"MasterClass Mother's Day discount offers a unique and meaningful gift for moms everywhere. The MasterClass platform not only provides access to a vast range of high-quality courses but also the opportunity for personal growth and development. Moms deserve the world, but a MasterClass annual membership is a great place to start," said Vitaliy.
