

Controversy Surrounds Video X Exclusive Bonus Offer Released by Internet Marketer and Product Reviewer Adam Ghoreichi from Mecanto Reviews

San Francisco, California: Neil Napier?s recent announcement of Video X has created a lot of buzz in the online marketing community because of its suggestion that Facebook Ads are rapidly becoming less effective while YouTube Ads represent the latest and greatest opportunity for marketers looking for the best investment towards paid traffic.

Video X is a premium YouTube Ads course that Neil Napier himself has already declared his ?biggest launch ever? despite a long list of successful product launches that have set the bar quite high for himself, including titles such as VidSplash, BuzzIgnition, CurationHero, Video Lead Boxes, Ad Hero, Visibly and many more. Video X goes live on December 11, 2015 and comes at a time when marketers are beginning to leave Facebook Ads for the greener pastures of YouTube Ads.

Complete information about Video X is available through its official page: http://jvz1.com/c/209809/190287.

The concept behind Video X came to fruition after Neil Napier spoke with paid traffic mastermind Justin Sardi who has developed a system using YouTube Ads that has transformed into a 6 figure business with better ROIs than anything he experienced while using Google Adwords and Facebook Ads previously.

In fact, Video X is the same system that Justin Sardi has been selling privately for $4000+ this year, but it has since been simplified, structured, and packaged into a course that starts from the most fundamental aspects so anyone can digest its contents regardless of their level of experience.

The exact methods that have been repeatedly deployed to earn huge returns using YouTube Ads are demonstrated in a step-by-step format inside Video X. Customers will also watch Justin Sardi ?over the shoulder? as he prepares and runs an actual YouTube Ads campaign as if you were sitting next to him in his office and observing his exact processes on the job.

Adam Ghoreichi is an online marketer that runs his own product review website at Mecanto.com. In his opinion, ?the ship has already sailed for Google Ads and Facebook Ads. Getting ahead in this business is all about identifying opportunities before everyone else does. YouTube Ads is the next big thing in paid traffic and Video X will show marketers the ropes and expose them to proven methods that have already been tried and tested. It?s one of those things that you could be looking back at with regret if you choose to ignore it now.?
