

55 Printing Lands Major New Client

December 11, 2015

December 11, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

55 Printing, a business in Los Angeles, CA, is very proud to announce that they have landed a major new client. They will now be providing their popular printing services for Foster Harris House, a hotel and restaurant company in Washington, VA. Full details about the services that 55 Printing offers are available through <http://www.55printing.com/cheap-postcard-printing/>.

"We are so happy to be providing our services to Foster Harris House," says Juan Batista from 55 Printing. "They are the type of business that requires a huge range of printing services, and we can help with all of them. In so doing, we are saving them both time and money as well."

55 Printing was founded in 1999 under the name Advantage Studios. Since their original launch, they have grown to become a household name for printing services across the country. They are hailed for their fast, reliable and high quality design and printing products. These products are offered to both businesses and individuals.

The company offers a tremendous array of print services. Their most popular ones, all of which are now used by Foster Harris House, are flyers, business cards, brochures, banners and leaflets. Foster Harris House has been very pleased with the products they have received so far. "After an internal reorganization, we wanted to place a greater emphasis on our marketing efforts," says a representative from Foster Harris House. "We enlisted the services of 55 Printing to get our name known around the country, and the work they have done so far has been fantastic. I can't fault their quality, speedy service and overall customer service and truly love the products that they have sent us so far."

All necessary products can be ordered through the 55 Printing website. However, those who wish to order a wide range of products or foresee returning orders, are encouraged to contact the company directly. This will enable them to come up with a plan that is both suitable and affordable and includes all the printing items that a business could possibly need, from menus to envelopes and from yard signs to black and white photocopies.
