December 10, 2015 -

Surreal New Year's Eve, one of Chicago, IL's best-known event organizers, has announced that they are promoting their New Year's Eve Soiree at the Chicago Hilton. Because of its prominent location, guests will be able to enjoy some truly fantastic amenities. Full details about the event and what it has to offer can be seen on http://surrealnye.com/New_Years_Eve_Ideas_Chicago.html.

Founder of Surreal New Year's Eve Brian Pfeiffer says: "We only have a few weeks to go until New Year's Eve, and everybody is starting to plan what they will be doing. Our event is set to be an absolute hit again this year, particularly thanks to the amazing amenities at this year's location. Tickets are selling out very quickly, so make sure you get yours now."

The Surreal New Year's Eve parties are known to be extraordinarily good. Organized by true party professionals, many people have had truly unforgettable experiences with these events. This year, the party will be held right in the heart of the city, with some of Chicago's best DJs playing live music. A true party atmosphere with food, drinks, confetti and balloons has been planned, and there is also an opportunity for live video mixing and fun casino activities.

The company has listed all the amenities guests can expect on http://surrealnye.com/chicago_new_years_amenities.html. Amenities include an open bar without any long queuing lines. These bars serve a variety of beers, cocktails and champagnes and spirits. Those who have purchased a VIP ticket will be able to enjoy even more amenities, including getting served before those with a general admissions ticket. Additionally, in the VIP ballroom, they can enjoy the services of private waiters.

A number of giveaways have also been organized for the night. These include a chance to win an exclusive photoshoot with the event's photographer and an exclusive reserved VIP table. More giveaways will be announced soon. People are encouraged to purchase their tickets now, as this will guarantee they will be kept up to date regarding the various extra amenities. As tickets are selling out quickly, people really don't have the time to wait.
