Sharleen's Shower Accessories is proud to announce the launch of their shower cap for kids on the mega shopping portal, Amazon.com just in time for the holidays. Sharleen's Shower Accessories, a fairly new retailer on Amazon, has already seen great success with the launch of their first product.

These shower caps are aimed at children because they are smaller in size so they will not fall off a small child's head, this is ideal so that water does not come into the cap. The kids shower caps are recommended for ages 2 ? 8 years old. They are not recommended if the child has very long hair.

In addition to the smaller size of the shower caps, there are other features that the company says set these shower caps apart.

First, the package is bundled with three unique floral designs. The three designs will help keep bath time fun by choosing a new shower cap each time. One day can be purple flowers and the next pink flowers. The package also comes with a bonus sponge. This will also help keep bath time fun by lathering up the sponge during shower. The bonus sponge comes with a sturdy string for hanging and storage as well.

Each shower cap is terry lined. The terry lining keeps out the moisture and is ideal to use after the child's hair is styled. For example, if the child just had their hair curled, but need to take a shower, a terry lined shower cap would be the ideal cap to wear.

The shower caps are also extremely durable, so one does not have to worry about tears or ripping, they were designed to be handled by children.

"We are very excited to launch our first product, our shower cap for kids on Amazon.com. So far, things are going great and we are already planning on our next product," said Gina, a company representative.

This 3-pack of shower caps for kids can be found exclusively on Amazon.com through Sharleen's Shower Accessories.
