May 22, 2023 -
SALINAS, CA - MMJumperz, Salinas' leading party rental company, today announced the latest addition to their ever-expanding range of offerings: Giant Inflatable Obstacle Courses. These new inflatables promise to elevate fun-filled parties to new heights, challenging kids and adults alike while providing hours of enjoyment.

The new obstacle courses, part of the company?s commitment to delivering unique, high-quality entertainment, are designed to enhance any event and provide a new level of excitement and adventure for party-goers. Each inflatable obstacle course features various challenges, including climbing walls, slides, and crawl-through tunnels, catering to a wide range of ages and abilities.

"Adding the giant inflatable obstacle courses to our rental collection underlines our mission to provide diverse, safe, and high-quality entertainment options for our customers," said Mariano Martinez the spokesperson of MMJumperz. "These inflatables bring a unique twist to traditional bounce houses, offering a more interactive and engaging experience."

The obstacle courses, made with durable, safe materials, adhere to MMJumperz's stringent safety standards, assuring parents that their children will have fun in a secure environment. Furthermore, these courses have been selected for their vibrant designs and themes, making them a visual treat as well as a source of fun.

Customers in Salinas, Monterey County, Gilroy, and Hollister can now book these giant inflatable obstacle courses for their next party or event through the MMJumperz website. The company provides professional setup and tear-down services, ensuring a hassle-free rental experience for all clients.
