June 24, 2023 -
LEAD Conveyancing Frankston has announced that it is now a featured member of Real Estate Services HQ, Australia?s #1 online real estate services directory.

Trinh Thai, Legal Director, and Founder at LEAD Conveyancing, shared her excitement about the recent development by saying, ?We have always strived to make property conveyancing in Australia as easy and convenient as it can be for our clients across Queensland, NSW, and Victoria. Being included as a featured service provider in Real Estate Services HQ has validated the focused efforts that we have been putting in over the years. It motivates us to keep doing what we do best ? making buying and selling property stress-free for all our clients.?

LEAD Conveyancing solves all conveyancing needs using its digital-first workflow. With an emphasis on paperless operations, LEAD Conveyancing eliminates the need for face-to-face appointments and brings hitherto unheard-of convenience to the property conveyancing process. The firm?s lawyers handle all correspondence by either email or phone. Meetings are carried out via videoconferencing on one?s phone, tablet, or computer.

?We help you complete your property transactions regardless of how busy your schedule looks,? says Trinh. ?Whenever you have time, hop on to a computer or mobile device and all the information you need will be waiting for you, meticulously organized by our handpicked team of experienced conveyancers, ready for your input. Documents can be signed using e-signing technology. Even if you have questions and need personalized help, you don?t need to take time off work and visit our offices. Just schedule a call with us and we will be available to solve all your concerns.?

The firm makes available a free conveyancing fees calculator on its website to help clients determine their legal costs whether they are buying or selling an existing house, unit or apartment, land, or off-the-plan property. The fixed quote from LEAD Conveyancing has no hidden fees and includes full costs from search certificates, disbursements, council fees, body corp fees, and all other associated costs with conveyancing. The firm can also provide additional services such as property transfers between related parties, standalone contract reviews, and drafting.

LEAD Conveyancing Frankston is a Victorian Legal Services Board + Commissioner registered practice. Its team of conveyancers is composed of experienced lawyers or solicitors, not just legal clerks who offer similar services at competing firms. Before founding LEAD Conveyancing, Legal Director Trinh Thai was Head of Legal Services Delivery at Think Conveyancing. The firm?s Senior Lawyer Kristy Fletcher also brings a wealth of experience in residential conveyancing in Queensland and Western Australia to the table.

Clients from across the country have repeatedly praised LEAD Conveyancing for delivering 5-star customer service with assured results. It boasts an impressive overall rating of 4.8 out of 5.0 on its Trust Pilot page from nearly 300 reviews and a perfect 5-star overall rating on its Word of Mouth profile from nearly 150 reviews. The firm?s Frankston office also boasts a perfect 5.0 out of 5.0 rating on its Google Business Profile.

A recent Google review says, ?We cannot thank enough the great team of Lead Conveyancing, me and my wife were able to get through the whole process of our land settlement with no sweat. Special mention to Trinh and Alice who assisted us patiently and who's been really nice to us! Well done guys! Looking forward to the next step with you! Thank you.?

Another client thanks Trinh and her team for the service they received at its Frankston location by saying, ?What a wonderful service. I had the pleasure of dealing with Trinh one of the Lawyers at Lead. Got me out of a pickle with a contract that I was dealing with. Very pleased to have had my contract reviewed before bidding at the auction. Turned out that the property was a lemon so dodged a bullet with that one. Thank you Lead and Trinh!?
