May 30, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chairforce New Zealand, a leading supplier of commercial-grade furniture, announced today the launch of its latest product line, the Hairpin Dining Table Leg range. The range is designed to meet the needs of customers looking for a sleek and modern dining table leg that provides stability and durability.

"Team members are excited to introduce the new Hairpin Dining Table Leg range to customers," said the spokesperson of Chairforce New Zealand. "These legs are perfect for those looking for a modern and stylish dining table leg that is not only aesthetically pleasing, but also durable and practical."

The Hairpin Dining Table Leg range - <https://chairforce.co.nz/product-category/table-bases/table-legs/> is designed to be easily secured to a bracket with three screws to each leg, making it perfectly suited for use as a dining table, desk, or in a cafe environment.

The Hairpin Dining Table Leg range comes in a sleek black or white powder-coated steel finish, adding a touch of elegance and modernity to any dining or work space. The legs feature three screws pre-drilled in the top bracket for secure fixing to the table top and adjustable feet that ensure no wobbling, providing a safe and comfortable dining experience. The legs also come with thick rubber feet that protect the floor from scuffs and scratches, ensuring that the dining area remains in pristine condition.

At Chairforce New Zealand, customer satisfaction is a top priority, and that's why the Hairpin Dining Table Leg range comes with a 2-year limited warranty. With no assembly required, customers can enjoy the convenience of a ready-to-use product that meets their needs for stability, durability, and style.

Chairforce New Zealand offers the popular Hairpin Table Legs set of 4 and the Rocco Twin Table Base. These products have received positive reviews from customers, with many praising their quality and durability.

"Team members are confident that the customers will appreciate the quality and design of the new Hairpin Dining Table Leg range," added the spokesperson. "Chairforce New Zealand is committed to providing the customers with the best products and services, and the team believe that this new range will be a great addition to the existing product line."

As Chairforce New Zealand continues to expand its product line, the company remains committed to providing its customers with the latest and most innovative products that meet their needs for quality, durability, and style.

"Team members are excited about the future of Chairforce New Zealand and the direction that the company is heading," said the spokesperson. "The team is constantly looking for new and innovative ways to improve the products and services, and they are confident that the customers will continue to rely on them for all of their furniture needs."
