The health benefits of CBD have been widely lauded, and Celestial Stem offers premium full spectrum CBD wellness products for people and pets. Founded by Jason Axtolis, Celestial Stem is Mesa's premier CBD wellness shop. The company was created out of Axtolis' frustration as a CBD consumer. He wanted to create a brand where quality and effectiveness were paramount, unlike many of the available options at the time, he says.

"I was trying a lot of CBD products, for myself and for my pets. The problems I kept running into were that the products didn't work, were grossly overpriced, and the quality was questionable," says Axtolis. "I took it upon myself to establish a brand that was not only effective for wellness, but also cost effective for people in need."

Axtolis has a 30+ year history working in Chinese internal arts and meditation. He completed coursework in Chinese Herbology, and spent a year as an intern at one of the Midwest's top Chinese Therapy clinics. He brings decades of wisdom and knowledge to the brand, as well as a personal passion for healing and wellness. CBD gained a lot of traction during the mid 2010's as people began relearning the health benefits of hemp extracts. CBD has been studied as a possible tool for pain management, behavioral management, neurological disorders, ADHD therapy, anti-inflammatory therapy and more.

Since their founding, Celestial Stem has worked to provide the highest quality CBD products to promote wellness. They've become the go-to for full spectrum CBD gummies in Mesa. Their Vegan Artisan gummies provide a potent dose of CBD that can potentially support pain management, sleep hygiene, mental wellness, and more. Their gummies contain no high fructose, no gluten, no gelatin, and no artificial flavors or colors. They are locally made and handcrafted in small batches for a personalized, highly effective CBD wellness treatment. They also come in a variety of flavors, such as Sour Apple, Watermelon, Strawberry Lime and Sour Grape. Each batch has been lab tested for quality and effectiveness, and buyers can even view lab results on the website. This level of transparency reflects Axtolis' commitment to providing high quality CBD wellness products that are worth their value.

"Our CBD gummies are a fan favorite simply because they work," says Axtolis. "They taste great, are made with natural ingredients, and they are easy to use. People use them for supporting muscles and joints, enhanced rest and recovery or to help focus and elevate their day."

The company is also well known for providing CBD for pets in Mesa. Their CBD pet treats have been crafted with furry friends in mind. These treats are full spectrum CBD from premium quality hemp. Pet treats come in peanut butter and banana flavors that animals are sure to love. The company also creates CBD pet tinctures too that can easily be added to a pet's meal or to their favorite treat. The pet CBD Almond Butter is a huge hit with dogs all over Mesa. The pet treat dose range from 2mg, 5mg, 10mg, and 20 mg with even higher doses for the tinctures. They offer consults to help pet parents choose the right dose for their animal. While generally used for dogs, CBD can benefit cats and other pets as well. It's important to consult a veterinarian if pet parents are unsure if CBD is right for their pet.

"I am a dog dad, and I want my pups to have the very best in wellness," says Axtolis. "We created our CBD pet products with the large dogs in mind which are often overlooked. We want more pet parents to have the ability to utilize CBD at an affordable price point regardless of the size of the pet. It's a great alternative or complement to traditional modalities."

In addition to these products, Celestial Stem offers CBD topicals, CBD soft gels, CBD Bath Bombs, Wellness Teas, and full spectrum CBD tinctures.
