West Allis, WI - Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery is dedicated to bringing their clients' vision to life, whether they prefer timeless elegance or the latest trends. With a passion for hand-selecting the finest blooms from around the world and a commitment to prompt communication, the professionals at Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery excel at crafting exquisite floral arrangements. However, their true joy comes from delivering these creations into the hands of the recipients and witnessing the magic unfold. At Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery, they believe that the details that matter most to their clients are what matter most to them.

Established in 1911, Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery has a long-standing tradition of exceptional design and customer service. For over a century, they have been a trusted name in the community, helping clients celebrate their significant milestones, both big and small. Under the ownership of master designer Kimberlee Grob, the locally-owned firm remains deeply dedicated to delivering the highest quality floral experiences.

Kimberlee Grob, a master designer, and the owner of the firm, brings her expertise and passion to every floral creation. With a wealth of experience gained from working at historic family-owned shops across Wisconsin, Kimberlee's unique perspective and creative vision add an extra touch of elegance to each client's floral experience. Her commitment to the artistry of floral design is evident in the breathtaking arrangements she and her team craft.

At Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery, they believe that fresh flower design is an affordable and sustainable art form capable of creating lasting memories. As custom floral design specialists, they take pride in listening attentively to their clients, ensuring that every arrangement reflects their personal style or the sentiment they wish to convey to the recipient. Their goal is to go above and beyond their client's expectations, delivering floral creations that evoke emotions and make a lasting impression.

Experience the transformative power of flowers at Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery, where they strive to make the world more beautiful, one bloom at a time. Whether their clients are celebrating a special occasion, expressing love and gratitude, or simply adding a touch of beauty to their everyday life, the team at Locker's Florist & Flower Delivery is here to assist them. With an extensive inventory of fresh flowers, plants, and a variety of arrangements, they offer a wide range of options to suit any occasion.
