To accommodate everyone from home cooks to professional chefs, The Fresh Lobster Company offers convenient and flexible quantity options that allow precise planning for gatherings of all sizes. Moreover, the company also provides visitors with an easy-to-use online ordering system and a transparent shipping policy to make buying everything from fish fillets to lobsters and sushi products a breeze for its customers all over the United States.

The spokesperson for The Fresh Lobster Company talks about what buyers should look for to ensure the freshness of their seafood purchase by saying, "We are extremely confident in our streamlined process that delivers only the freshest seafood to our customers. We urge you to verify it for yourself by inspecting the appearance of our fish fillets, which should be clear, bright, and shiny, their firm and elastic texture, mild briny scent, clear eyes, and reddish or pinkish gills."

Buyers are encouraged to check out the company's Fresh Seafood Specials of the Month which offer hefty discounts on the most sought-after catch of the season. The company's Seafood of the Month Club program allows customers to order decorative gift packages and have them sent to their homes, friends, family, or business associates. For customers interested in sharing their love for seafood, The Fresh Lobster Company also offers gift certificates ranging from $100 to $500.

The company has received a tremendously positive reception from its clients all over the nation who praise it for its varied and fresh seafood choices and direct and cost-effective shipping. Consequently, The Fresh Lobster Company boasts an excellent overall rating of 4.7 out of 5.0 on its Google Business Profile from over 75 reviews.

One review notes the company's customer service and hassle-free delivery by saying, "I ordered lobster dinner and a couple of accessories for a friend who had never cooked lobster. The online ordering process was easy! After ordering I realized that the delivery date needed to be changed... all it took was a phone call to The Fresh Lobster Company and the delivery date was changed. It too, was easy. I was advised I would get an email when the lobsters were shipped, and I could track the delivery by FedEx. Sure enough, at approximately 6 PM the night before the scheduled delivery, the email arrived. In literally 21 hours, the order was shipped and arrived in Virginia."

Another happy customer commends its lobster offerings by saying, "Top-shelf service. Human beings answer the phone. I had a rush order and they made it work. Should have done an unboxing video. Upon opening, my jaw dropped, and I thought, "These people really care about what they're doing and they're proud of it." The presentation is likely the best I've ever seen. So thoughtful and exquisitely done. Oh, and yeah, the bugs were PERFECT!!! Thanks for saving my husband's 70th. You guys are awesome!"
